

Religious Education at The Howard School

YEAR 13

New chapter and adventures

To what extent does religious language have purpose?

Are we predestined for heaven/hell?

To what extent should we pursue pleasure?

How successful is science at challenging religious faith?

Are men and women truly equal in Christianity?

What are the challenges of migration in Christianity?

What are the dangers of wealth?

Should we disregard myths?

To what extent is language useful in expressing the metaphysical?

Is freewill an illusion?

Should love drive our moral choices?

What is the purpose of Christianity?

Why are rites of passage so important?

Which religion is right?

What's more important faith or works?

What is the key moral principle of Christianity?

How has the community of Christianity changed?

YEAR 12

Should we show dominance towards the natural world?

What does it mean to be Good?

How should we behave?

Which moral system is the best?

Can we ever be altruistic?

What does it mean to be virtuous?

How can moral systems apply to abortion/homosexuality/immigration?

Does our existence prove the existence of an intelligent being?

Can there be anything greater than God?

Is evil just the absence of good?

Does the accuracy of the birth narratives matter?

To what extent should the Bible be a source of authority?

Why is the incarnation important?

Can God suffer?

What are the implications of male centred language in the Bible?

Do we have a soul? What are the implications for us if we do?

Should we all be vegetarian?

What does a good quality of life mean?

Should euthanasia be legalised in the UK?

What happens when we die?

What are the rights of the father?

Should abortion should be legalised for any reason

When does life begin?

Is evangelism needed any more?

Why is prayer important?

How has the church grown?

Which is the most important festival and why?

Why is holy communion so important?

What is the significance of sacraments?

Why do Christians go on pilgrimage?

Why are there different styles of worship in Christianity?

We have a duty to show stewardship to the world

Does the sanctity of life apply to animals?

Are we superior to animals?

How should we treat the world around us?

What is the origin of human life?

Should the UK law on abortion change?

Is abortion ever acceptable?

What does the church do?

What Buddhists celebrations are there?

What is meditation and why's it useful?

Can war ever be justified?

What is the significance of the resurrection today?

How is the resurrection important today?

What do Christians believe happens when we die and what impact does this have on their every day?

What is Metta important to Buddhists?

What do Buddhists believe happens when we die and what impact does this have on their every day?

Is everything impermanent?

Are science and religion in conflict?

How can we know God?

What arguments are there for and against miracles?

Is our existence prove of God - his power and love?

Does everything have a first cause? Is God a first cause?

Can God exist if there is suffering?

What is the trinity?

What do Christians think God is like?

How is the incarnation important to Christians?

What role does Jesus have in salvation?

Is reconciliation possible after conflict?

Why is there an arms race?

Is disarmament a sign of weakness?

What does the Bible say about creation?

Does capital punishment align itself with religious values?

What causes Dukkah?

What is the most important aim of punishment?

To what extent is capital punishment a deterrent?

Is a moral code a sign of a civilised society?

Does the happiness of the majority take precedent with moral decisions?

Can war ever be justified?

Explore the causes and consequences of war

To what extent can the Just War Theory be used in modern warfare?

Addressing misconceptions of religion and war including terrorism, jihad and pacifism

Addressing misconceptions of religious dress? Is it oppressive?

What are the 5 precepts?

What are the 3 marks of existence?

How are the 4 Nobel truths important to Buddhists today?

What do Buddhists believe happens when we die?

Why is Buddha important?

How are the 8 fold path important?

How do we define religion?

Is justice possible after crimes are committed?

How do we know what is morally right and wrong?

Why is religious identity important?

How might diet be affected by your religious beliefs?

Consider and address the misconceptions Muslims face e.g. Jihad/Halal

Should we experiment on animals?

What are the moral implications of genetic engineering?

How is Tawhid reflected in the practices of Muslims?

What are the 5 pillars of Islam and why are the important today to Muslims?

To what extent is forgiveness viable when it comes to crime?

Does capital punishment align itself with religious values?

Is corporal punishment morally acceptable?

What is the purpose of punishment?

To what extent is it the responsibility of religious believers help those who suffer?

How do Buddhists/Christians/Muslims respond to suffering?

Does suffering have a purpose?

YEAR 9

Can war ever be justified?

Consider arguments for an against the possession of WMD

What's the best method of conflict resolution?

Addressing the misconception: of religious dress? Is it oppressive?

What are the 5 precepts?

What are the 3 marks of existence?

How are the 4 Nobel truths important to Buddhists today?

What do Buddhists believe happens when we die?

Why is Buddha important?

How are the 8 fold path important?

How do we define religion?

To what extent should we support victims of war?

What is evangelism? Is it appropriate/necessary?

Why is the role of a disciple? How are they influential?

What is a sacrament? How are they important in the lives of Christians?

Was Jesus a rebel or a radical?

How is the trinity important to Christians?

What are miracles? Arguments for and against them

What is Rosh Hashanah? How important is reflection and history in religious festivals today?

What is Holi and Diwali? Is it appropriate to use the celebration of festivals out of context?

Students consider the authorship and symbolism of the Nativity story. Is Christmas too commercialised?

Understand the broad nature of religious belief and practices. What is RE and why do we study it?

Why are there so many different types of Christians?

YEAR 10

What is God like?

What are the moral implications of genetic engineering?

How is Tawhid reflected in the practices of Muslims?

What are the 5 pillars of Islam and why are the important today to Muslims?

To what extent is forgiveness viable when it comes to crime?

Does capital punishment align itself with religious values?

Is corporal punishment morally acceptable?

What is the purpose of punishment?

To what extent is it the responsibility of religious believers help those who suffer?

How do Buddhists/Christians/Muslims respond to suffering?

Does suffering have a purpose?

YEAR 11

What is Metta important to Buddhists?

How do Buddhists worship?

How does a temple aid Buddhist practise?

Why is there an arms race?

Is disarmament a sign of weakness?

What does the Bible say about creation?

Does capital punishment align itself with religious values?

Is corporal punishment morally acceptable?

What is the purpose of punishment?

To what extent is it the responsibility of religious believers help those who suffer?

How do Buddhists/Christians/Muslims respond to suffering?

Does suffering have a purpose?

What causes suffering? What's the difference between natural and moral suffering?

What happens when sport and religion clash?

Is football a religion?

To what extent is sport unfair?

How do we define religion?

How are the 8 fold path important?

What are festivals and why are they important?

Introduction to the importance of religious literacy

Students consider the authorship and symbolism of the Nativity story. Is Christmas too commercialised?

Understand the broad nature of religious belief and practices. What is RE and why do we study it?

Why are there so many different types of Christians?

What is a sacrament? How are they important in the lives of Christians?

Was Jesus a rebel or a radical?

How is the trinity important to Christians?

What are miracles? Arguments for and against them

welcome

